FACULTY AND CLASSES

HISTORY OF THE

In its briefest form our history can be covered by the facts that four years ago (or was it yesterday?) four hundred assorted boys entered Bethlehem from all directions and four years later half that number of men left the same fair city with the sterling and indelible characteristics of "Lehigh men" stamped upon them.

This same general process has been going on for years now, and consequently, the history of one class differs from that of another only in its minor details. For instance, we shall probably go down in history as one of the few classes who were lucky enough to be in college, and not just out of it, during the lean years of 1931-1935. Speaking of luck, we were told four years ago that we were a most fortunate class in that by the time we graduated, the wheels of industry would undoubtedly be churning away again at a fast enough rate to absorb such a mere handful as a Lehigh senior class. At this writing the veracity of this statement is still questionable, for as yet the captains of industry do not seem unduly excited about the fact that two hundred excellent minds and able bodies are about to enhance the supply of available labor!

During our four years we walked the same paths, attended the same classes, and listened to the same professors as many of our predecessors. We "discovered" all over again with the same attendant amount of enjoyment the same emporiums in which to broaden our educations after sunset, and met the same girls (or their sisters) that Bill Jones thought were so swell back in 1929! And now we graduate from the same chapel in the same caps and gowns.

But, gentlemen, there is one way in which we are gloriously unique and different from most classes of the past decade. Namely, and finally, we climaxed a college career of study, carousing, worry, fun, suspense, success, failure, joy, sorrow, sentiment, sophistication, and whatever else one absorbs in the educative process by a long-awaited, well-earned, and soul-stirring gridiron victory over Lafayette—which event completed an already perfect four years.

"Johnny"

Arts

AFTER juggling "swindle sheets" and straightening palm trees for power companies in Florida, "Johnny" decided to be a doctor. During his preparation at Lehigh we catch glimpses of him spilling yarns of his past experiences to the fellows in laboratory about the days when men were men and bridge-lifting a science. In "Johnny's" own words, "It's a poor sink that you can only use for a cuspidor." "Johnny's" ancient Nash jounces him over the futs from Allentown to Bethlehem. His humor and good nature will carry him over the bumps of medical school and the eccentricities of old maids with the pip.

A SON of a Lehigh grad, Berg responded to the atmosphere in which he had matured (?) and matriculated at his dad's Alma Mater. He has become notorious for his gullibility, interest in Psych, difficulty with Accounting and Statistics, and a four year search for a course that interested him. An infinite capacity for work, admirable self-interest, and a pleasing good-nature are qualities that will see "Park" thru.

SAM is the "chocolate king" of the Lehigh Valley. He is the only man ever to take Dr. Crother's Sociology attendance and not get an "A". One can usually find "Sam" either down in the cellar playing 8id ping-pong or working on some "pipe" accounting problem. There is much more to be said about this personable young man, but since this biography is limited in words —

"MIKE'S" career at the University has been governed by two proverbs:

"All work and no play makes Jack ('Mike') a dull boy," and "business before pleasure." "Mike" seemed to strike a happy medium between these two mottoes, and turned out to be a student as well as "an all-around Lehigh man." Being an "all-around Lehigh man," covers a lot of territory. That's "Mike."

"BOB" came to college with a running start, and has for four years broken numerous track records. Being brittle-boned his football days were slighted in favor of the cinderpath. Aside from athletic activities, his personality has not only captivated the girls, but won deserved honors in presiding over the Interfraternity Council and the purse strings of his class. Everyone will miss "Bob" because he knows everyone.

WHY "Jake's" education has not followed along communication lines we do not know. For he is the one who receives air mail specials; and 'tis he, indeed, who calls Denver by telephone with no wires, and who calls his sister by telephone with wires. Ah, such versatility! Between studies and bookkeeping for the Belt House, "Jake" has maintained a fine unselfish interest in the Maennerchor.

"BILL" hails from Hershey, the land of chocolates and other sweet (young) things. Although he studied at Remscheid his freshman year, like all true engineers, he decided to enter Lehigh in the pursuit of knowledge. A lover of sports, "Bill" is at his best on the handball court. May the success of the game always be his in the more difficult encounters in the years to come.

COME on, hop in! Sure, I'll do it. No trouble at all that's Bill. A dyed-in-wool Lehigh man always optimistic. Bill has been out for practically every sport. Never a star, but made many friends by his contacts. Bill probably knows and is known by more people around school than any student. With all his virtues he is a Chem. Eng. But his motto is, never let work interfere with other activities.

As to social qualities, he makes an A-1 roommate, as well as being no mean teaser of the ivories which decorate the front of a piano. DAVE has had a hard time going through Lehigh. Mathematics was his greatest enemy. However, Dave was determined to earn his degree even if it took five or six years. It makes him very happy knowing that he has succeeded in four years. He will always remember surveying camp at Lake Shawnee and the boys of Taylor Hall. Some day Dave hopes to send his sons to Lehigh.

MANY have been the claims that Bethlehem's motion picture theaters were first started and are now conducted for the entertainment of Lehigh's business men. Anthony—"Tony" to his friends because he is not a future "white collar executive," is an exception to this generally accepted rule. If his claim to Lehigh fame that he hasn't missed an important movie (or otherwise) in his four years here. Exam time is no different than any other to "Tony," for he does his "night before" work in the theatre. Now, aren't the movies educational?

BILL'S" favorite pastime seems to be dancing at Catholic High School. He boasts of not missing a dance in the last two years, but that is nothing to boast of.

"Bill" bewails the fact that few of his friends understand him. We suggest kidding us a little more obviously. We never know whether you are serious or taking us for a ride.

TWO years of a hermit-like existence, one of an eager, fancy-free investigation of Iron-Valley night-life, and one of a hostage under a female's tyrannical rule was the lot, fortunate or otherwise, of this disciple of the Mets. All in all "Bill" learned that Lehigh's most interesting and educational courses were taught at night, with two-day quizzes held every week-end.

CHARLIE had quite a time settling down to one department. After starting out in Metallurgy, he changed to Mining and before he got through had a good look at the Business department. HISTORY OF THE

Three years have passed since we first arrived at Lehigh as freshmen in the Class of '36. Three years during which, we are proud to say, we have taken an important part in the activities of this, our alma mater. We made a most auspicious start when soon after our arrival on this campus we founded the Freshman Union, an organization that has been continued by the two succeeding freshman classes. Its purpose was to unite the members of our class, to develop friendships, and to increase class spirit.

We are proud to say that it was also our class that inaugurated the present winning streak in the annual frosh football games with Lafayette, and as Juniors we were finally privileged to see the varsity, aided by several outstanding men in our class, come through with a victory.

ROBERT M. EICHNER
President

JUNIOR CLASS

JOHN L. KORNET
Secretary-Treasurer

In addition to having our share of athletes, we can also boast of outstanding men on the various publications, as well as in other campus activities. Like the classes that have gone before us, we regret that our number has been appreciably decreased, but those of us who have gone this far in their college career are well aware that the foundation of learning and friendships thus far acquired will stand us in good stead when we are finally ready to leave college for other pursuits.

Impatient as we are to attain our goal, may we all be thankful that we have still another year to strengthen our cherished associations with our alma mater and to prepare ourselves more thoroughly for the positions we hope someday to attain in the engineering, the business, or the professional world.

HISTORY OF THE

Sophomores! We have successfully completed the first half of our college career. Our freshman year, filled with the joy of a newly discovered life, was superseded only by our consummate sophomore year. What we have accomplished during our days as undergraduates is the foundation of a history—a history that will be continued and augmented throughout our lives.

"Thirty-seven" stands for everything that is desirable in a Lehigh man. Our influence has been felt in every activity on the campus. Many of our class have excelled in scholarship. Many have gained prominence upon the athletic field. Many have attained distinction in the various clubs and publications.

With a perfectly coördinated spirit of coöperation, we welded ourselves into the Class of '37 at the outset of our freshman year. Our members strongly supported the Freshman Union, our governing body.

WARREN P. FAIRBANKS
President

SOPHOMORE CLASS

ROBERT A. DREYER
Secretary-Treasurer

Our enthusiastic class spirit prevailed as we came out victor on Founder's Day, winning four out of five events.

With the passing of our freshman year, we experienced a feeling of regret. This, however, was soon overcome by the happiness of another year. As sophomores, we have excelled mainly in athletics. Eight of our members have received letters for varsity football, five of them backfield men. With three men on the wrestling team and representatives in every other varsity sport, Lehigh is looking forward to powerful teams in the near future, composed largely of members of our class. In other campus activities, too, our accomplishments have been noteworthy.

Our past achievements reflect an optimistic future. We look forward upon the final stretch of our career at Lehigh with a confidence and determination that is unshakable.

HISTORY OF THE

On September 11 we, the Class of '38, were welcomed by the upperclassmen into a new and fascinating university life. During Freshman Week we lived like princes as fraternities vied for our favor. At the end of the rushing period two hundred and thirty of us took up the bonds of brotherhood.

It was soon evident that we were a class of no mean ability. The psychology department announced an improvement of 7.6 per cent over the record of the Class of '37 in the psych test ratings. The Brown and White proclaimed, "The best showing by a freshman class in years was made by the Class of '38 in the Freshman Hygiene course." Our success continued on Founder's Day when we overwhelmed the sophomores by winning every event. A few weeks later we went to Easton and downed the Lafayette Frosh. On the eve of the big game, we had the privilege of renewing an ancient custom which had been discontinued for several years, namely donning pajamas for the Lafayette smoker and parade. So we feel that our blunders, numerous as they were, have been more than compensated for by our achievements. We hope and trust that our sincere and spirited efforts as freshmen have been appreciated by our upperclassmates.

We are now Lehigh men. Many of the acquaintanceships we have made are already ripening into priceless, enduring friendships. We have pledged ourselves to ever strive to further those noble traditions of Our University established by our predecessors, and may our lives add lustre to Her glorious fame.

FRATERNITIES

Chapter History

The Alpha Chi Rho Fraternity was founded on June 4, 1895, at Trinity College, in Hartford, Connecticut, by the Reverend Paul Ziegler, H. T. Sheriff, William A. Eardeley, C. G. Ziegler, and William H. Rouse. There are now eighteen active chapters.

The Phi Mu Chapter of Alpha Chi Rho originated as a result of a local fraternity, Theta Delta Psi, petitioning the national of the Alpha Chi Rho Fraternity. The petition was granted, and the chapter was installed at Lehigh in 1918.

The Lehigh Chapter has a distinctive alumni organization as have the eighteen other chapters in Alpha Chi Rho. The graduates of the chapter are linked together into an alumni chapter which is governed by a committee and acts as an advisor to the active members.

The first chapter house was located at 454 Vine Street. Three years later the chapter was moved into a larger home at Third and Wyandotte Streets. The facilities of this house soon proved inadequate, and in 1923 the Skeer's Mansion at Third and Cherokee Streets was purchased. Ten years later a further expansion was deemed necessary, and the chapter was moved into its present spacious home at Market and Linden Streets.

In recent years Alpha Chi Rho has figured prominently in intramural athletics and displays a number of loving cups as evidence of her ability. In order to maintain a closer contact between the chapter of the fraternity, inter-chapter basketball games are played between neighboring chapters. Inter-chapter dances are also given each year.

Chapter History

Alpha Kappa Pi Fraternity was founded at the Newark College of Engineering, Newark, New Jersey, on January 1, 1921; it was then known as the Phi Delta Zeta Fraternity.

In the fall of 1925, representatives of the Phi Delta Zeta Fraternity and the Alpha Kappa Pi Fraternity met for the purpose of forming a national fraternity. With the advice and guidance of Dr. Albert Hughes Wilson of New York City, these two local fraternities completed the organization of Alpha Kappa Pi on Tuesday, March 23, 1926, placing one chapter at Newark and one at Wagner College, Staten Island. Since then the fraternity has grown to twenty-one chapters.

Nu Chapter was installed at Lehigh University in February, 1930. In February, 1927, a group of men who had been living and eating together secured a home and took new associates with them for the purpose of organizing a living group. Recognition by Arcadia soon followed, and the men chose as their name "Howard Hall." During 1927, the organization moved to 511 Seneca Street.

In 1929, realizing the benefits to be derived from joining a national fraternity, the members applied to Alpha Kappa Pi for a charter. On February 1, 1930, the national organization granted the petition which had been sent in the previous October, and twenty-six men were initiated as charter members of Nu Chapter. The chapter continued to live in its house on Seneca Street until March of 1933, when it moved to its present home at 514 Delaware Avenue.

Chapter History

The Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity was founded as a national fraternity in Richmond, Virginia, September 11, 1865, by Otis Alan Glazebrook, Erskine Mayo Ross, and Alfred Marshall. It was formed with the object of promoting social and fraternal fellowship among its members, although the main object in its founding was the mitigation of the strong sectional feeling existing between the North and the South following the Civil War. It was the first college fraternity organized after the Civil War. The first chapter of the fraternity was established at the Virginia Military Institute in Lexington, Virginia. The fraternity was incorporated under the laws of Maryland in 1879.

The Southern extension of Alpha Tau Omega was made difficult by the unsettled conditions existing after the War. However, thirty chapters had been established in the South before the first Northern chapter had been established. The greatest difficulty in the organization of Northern chapters was the prejudice existing against Southern fraternities. The first chapter established in the North was at the University of Pennsylvania on April 8, 1881. Dr. Edgar F. Smith, Provost of the University of Pennsylvania, was instrumental in the formation of this chapter, although he was a member of another national fraternity. N. Wiley Thomas, the first initiate of the new Tau Chapter, installed a chapter at Muhlenberg in 1881, and the Alpha Rho Chapter at Lehigh on March 20, 1882. The fraternity now comprises ninety-one active chapters at colleges and universities in forty-four states.

The Alpha Rho Chapter of Alpha Tau Omega was the second fraternity to be established at Lehigh. It has been located on the campus for the past nineteen years.

Chapter History

In the fall of 1927, a group of students of the class of '31 wishing to have a closer contact with university life but not wishing activity in a fraternity to interfere with their studies, banded together to form an organization of fellowship. In the spring of that school year this group, with its pledges, founded Omega Phi Sigma, a fraternity upholding the ideals of the original society. In the following fall, the members of Omega Phi Sigma obtained a house on Montclair Avenue and launched their first rushing season.

As Omega Phi Sigma the fraternity continued with constantly growing success for five years as the only local at Lehigh University. For five of the eleven semesters of its existence the house ranked first among fraternities in scholarship. With the new members gradually drawing further away from the sentiment of the original members to remain a local chapter, plans for nationalization were made. It was finally realized that the backing and experience of a good national fraternity were necessary for the continued success of the local group. In the spring of 1934, Beta Kappa, a comparatively young but well organized and widely distributed national fraternity which upheld the ideals of Omega Phi Sigma, was petitioned. Omega Phi Sigma was installed as the Alpha Sigma Chapter of Beta Kappa on May 19, 1934. In September of the same year the fraternity moved into its present house on Delaware Avenue.

Chapter History

Beta Theta Pi, the first of the well known Miami Triad, was founded in 1839 at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, by John R. Knox and seven other undergraduates. The fraternity has experienced a steady growth, and now has more than eighty active chapters.

The Lehigh chapter of Beta Theta Pi was founded on October 1, 1891 by Peyron B. Winfree, William Heindle, John F. Hirsh, Hugh C. Banks, William Weatherby, W. F. Mylander, Winston K. Pendleton, William S. Jones, Frank Schutte, and Charles H. Thompson. The most influential of these men was Peyton Winfree, a transfer from the now extinct Randolph-Macon Chapter, who conceived the idea of his fraternity establishing a chapter at Lehigh.

Winfree and two other Beta's, transfers from Dickinson and Bethany, built up an imposing local organization and petitioned the national fraternity of Beta Theta Pi. The charter was granted at the national convention in 1891, and the chapter was installed. With the addition of this chapter, Beta Theta Pi took one more step toward the formation of a large and powerful college fraternity.

When the charter was granted to Beta Chi, a little ramshackle house on West Fourth Street served as the chapter home. However, in those days of a small chapter and meager funds the residence changed frequently. In 1902 a house was purchased on Wyandotte Street which was occupied for the next sixteen years. The chapter moved across the river to East Church Street in 1923 while plans were being made for the erection of the present structure on the campus. The new building was completed in 1926.

Chapter History

The Psi Chapter of Chi Phi had its beginning on February 15, 1872, when a charter was granted to Smith V. V. Wilson, George C. Haldeman, Frank A. Watkins, William M. Rees, William W. Gross, and Julius P. Meyer. The chapter, prior to its affiliation with Chi Phi, was known as The Calumet Club, a dinner club formed by a group of Lehigh students of similar interests.

The national fraternity is the result of the successive union of three organizations, all bearing the name of Chi Phi. The first of these, the Princeton Order, originated at the College of New Jersey in 1854; the second, which was known as the Southern Order, originated at the University of North Carolina in 1858; and the third, the Hobart Order, originated at Hobart College in 1860. After the Civil War there remained a Chi Phi of the North and a Chi Phi of the South. In 1874, these two united to form the present national fraternity.

The first initiation of Psi occurred February 22, 1872. The new men were initiated by members of the Beta, Omega, and Zeta Chapters in the fraternity rooms at Second and New Streets.

After continually shifting from one part of town to another in an effort to find a suitable location, the fraternity finally established itself in its present home in Sayre Park on the Lehigh campus in the fall of 1923. The house was erected by the alumni and is managed through a committee of the Briarfield Alumni Association.

Chapter History

The Chi Psi Fraternity was founded at Union College in 1841. The purpose in the founding of Chi Psi was the desire to cultivate a more elevated and beneficial mutual friendship than could be obtained in the regular routine of undergraduate life. Conservatism in growth has been a pronounced policy of Chi Psi since the time of its founding. At the present time there are but twenty-five chapters of Chi Psi which are distributed from coast to coast in the more prominent universities and colleges. The chapters are kept closely united by the functions of an unusually well supervised national office. This office keeps in close contact with each chapter through frequent correspondence and a system of fraternity visitors of which it was the founder. The national office also publishes a quarterly magazine containing all news items of current Chi Psi interest, as well as articles containing a summary of the activities and accomplishments of each chapter.

The aims and ideals of the founders form the ultimate goal of each chapter, and the most important requisite for membership is embodied in the one word, gentleman.

In nearly all of the principal cities of the United States there are active alumni associations, and the fraternity is famous for the cooperation and assistance furnished by the alumni members of these organizations.

Alpha Beta Delta of Chi Psi was founded at Lehigh in 1894 by nine prominent undergraduates who were desirous of membership in a conservative national fraternity. They were Harry Leigh Adams, Samuel Edward Beeler, George Warren Beggs, Jr., Frank Faust, Ira Miller Higbee, Arthur Frank Loomis, Thomas Charles Roderick, Alfred Mahlon Worstell, and Ambrose B. Strickler.

Chapter History

The national organization of the Delta Phi Fraternity was founded at Union College in 1827 by nine students, many of whom were in the Theological School. This fraternity is a member of the Union Triad, a name applied to the three fraternities which have their parent chapters at Union College. The fraternity is the third in the order of establishment of social fraternities and, since its founding, has been among the foremost in the chartering of Eastern chapters.

The purpose of the founders, "to consolidate their interests and at the same time mutually benefit each other, to maintain high standing as students and gentlemen, and to foster cordial and fraternal relations," has always been the aim of all the chapters of the fraternity.

The Nu Chapter of Delta Phi was founded in 1884, as the fourth fraternity at Lehigh University. The charter members were Henry B. Douglas, John A. Jardine, William A. Cooke, Joseph K. Surls, Miguel R. Suarez, and Harry S. Mcily. This chapter has had a continuous existence since its founding, and the present enrollment is about two hundred.

The chapter first had clubrooms near the campus. After this they moved to a temporary house far out on Delaware Avenue. From here the fraternity moved to a house at Delaware Avenue and Mohican Street. This house was razed by fire in 1913. The present house on Warren Square was obtained in 1920.

At present, the following Delta Phi's live in Bethlehem: Alan C. Dodson, Truman M. Dodson, Gerald Thorpe, and Edward E. Goodwillie.

Chapter History

On December 10, 1899, the Alpha Chapter of Delta Sigma Phi was founded at the City College of New York. Three years later came the Beta Chapter at Columbia University and, in 1903, the Gamma Chapter at New York University. The expansion of the fraternity finally led to a chapter at Massachusetts Institute of Technology and later one at McGill University in Montreal. Soon chapters sprang up at Penn State College and at Washington and Lee, until at the present time there are over fifty chapters in colleges and universities throughout the United States and Canada.

The Beta Theta Chapter originated about ten years ago from a society of senior engineers which was called Sigma Iota. The growth of the group led to a change in name and it became known as the Phi Delta Pi Society. In 1929 they obtained the present house on Delaware Avenue, and rapid growth and expansion led to the petitioning for admission to the Delta Sigma Phi National Fraternity. Through the unceasing efforts of Dr. Ralph B. Hess of Bethlehem, the charter was finally granted in the fall of 1931, and the installation followed early in 1932. At this time the charter members of Beta Theta included Henry Kriebel, Ira Stoneback, Thomas Doubleday, James Simes, Jr., Louis Stow, Edward Arnold, Jr., Roger Fluck, Murray Schilling, William Goehring, Jr., William James, Albert Burbank Lovett, Alonzo Sinclair, Martin Reed, Jr., Samuel Stiles, Robert Moffett, Edward DeForest, Walter Williamson, Michael Hader, and Sheldon R. Lately, Rev. Carl Leinbach of the St. Paul's Reformed Church has been added as one of the advisors in this city.

Chapter History

Delta Tau Delta was founded at Bethany College, West Virginia, by R. H. Alfred, E. Tarr, J. C. Johnson, and A. C. Earle. In the spring of 1858 the informal initiation was held; but the adoption of the motto, badge, and constitution did not occur until early in February, 1859. The parent chapter speedily established several chapters; and then, as the college attendance declined in the confusion incident to the outbreak of the Civil War, it ceased to exist. It was afterwards re-established, but the charter was withdrawn in 1859. A combination with the Rainbow of W.W.W. Fraternity was effected in 1848 at the University of Mississippi.

The Pi Chapter of Delta Tau Delta was instituted at Lehigh in 1874; but, as is often the case with young chapters, the early years were disastrous, and in 1885 the charter was revoked. The fraternity remained inactive for four years, after which the chapter was revived under the name of Beta Lambda. This was accomplished through the efforts of St. John Cox, W. B. Brady, W. T. Frederick, J. A. Beaver, and S. M. Bines.

The house which was occupied by the local chapter in 1875 is what is now the University Club. During the succeeding years several other changes were made, until the chapter finally settled down for some years in the present Sigma Alpha Mu house. By means of generous subscriptions of the alumni, Henry P. Campbell in particular, the fraternity was able to build its present house on the campus. This house was the second to be built on the campus and was completed in the fall of 1914.

Chapter History

In 1834 the society which was later to be known as Delta Upsilon was founded at Williams College. Its original membership was composed of thirty undergraduate students. This society was originally called an "anti-secret society," but the attitude of its members changed gradually until 1881 when the term was changed to "non-secret." Rapidly growing in size, by 1838 the society boasted of eighty-two members, or about two-thirds of the student body. In that year the society was incorporated, and at present it has fifty-six chapters.

The Lehigh Chapter of Delta Upsilon was instituted by the fifteenth annual convention of the fraternity, and the installation ceremonies were held on October 10, 1885, in Allentown at the American Hotel. Charles Evans Hughes, Brown, '81, served in the capacity of chairman of the installation committee. The charter members of the Lehigh Chapter were: George A. Ruddle, William A. Lyndon, Robert Lee Whitehead, Charles Pope Pollack, Orway A. Torrell, John M. Howard, Luther R. Zollinger, Harlon S. Millner, Harvey S. Morrow, and Charles S. Parker.

The first quarters of the chapter included two rooms on the second floor of the old Kansas Building. Two years later the fraternity obtained a floor at Fourth and Wyandotte Streets. From there the fraternity moved to a house on Cherokee Street in which it remained until 1909, when it built the first fraternity house on the Lehigh campus; this it still occupies.

Chapter History

In 1825, after the break-up of a society for exercise and drill, a new secret society of a literary and social order was founded at Union College by nine men. This was the beginning of the Kappa Alpha Fraternity, the first secret brotherhood formed in an American college; and although it met at first with a great deal of opposition from the college and faculty, the fraternity grew until there were eight chapters. This was deemed the ideal size for a national fraternity, and no more chapters were added.

Three members of the class of 1895: James E. Brooks, Henry E. Kipp, and Charles F. Maurice, after working for nearly a year in order to obtain a charter, finally made application to the Kappa Alpha convention in May, 1893. Their petition was accepted, and in January, 1894, the Alpha Chapter of Kappa Alpha was installed at Lehigh University. The six original petitioners were initiated on January 2, 1894 at a ceremony held in the Masonic Temple, New York City, and three more were taken into the brotherhood the following February.

At first, because the chapter had no regular house, it held its meetings in a rented room. A year after its establishment, a small house on Cherokee Street was obtained. As the chapter continued to grow, however, better and larger quarters became necessary. In 1916, having sold their first house, the chapter moved to Seneca Street. After remaining there for two years, the chapter acquired a house on Broadway. This proved to be unsatisfactory; so, in the summer of 1922, they purchased the present house situated at Fourth and Seneca Streets.

Chapter History

The Kappa Sigma Fraternity was founded at the University of Virginia on December 10, 1869, by five men who, because of their personal friendship with each other, desired to further this friendship in the common bonds of a fraternity. These men have always been known in the literature and tradition of the fraternity as the "five friends and brothers." The fraternity has 106 active chapters located at the best colleges and universities in the United States, and there are organized alumni chapters in the principal cities. The chapters are now grouped into twenty-one districts, with a district grandmaster at the head of each district.

In 1900, a group of eleven prominent undergraduates at Lehigh who desired connection with a national fraternity petitioned and were accepted into the Kappa Sigma Fraternity. The group was installed as the Beta Iota Chapter on November 19 of that year during a conclave of the national fraternity.

With the spirit of personal friendship in view, Beta Iota began its activities and was soon very active in campus affairs. The first house was located on Delaware Avenue, and the chapter flourished there until an unfortunate fire necessitated moving to the Chapman house at Church and High Streets. The chapter next moved to the old home of E. P. Wilbur on Delaware Avenue and later to the present Knights of Columbus Hall on Fourth Street. The present house was established in 1926 in the former residence of Archibald Johnson at 24 East Church Street.

Chapter History

The first chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha came into existence at Boston University in 1909. Three years later a program of expansion was started, and now there are over eighty chapters, or Zetas, in the United States and Canada.

The Zeta at Lehigh started as a local fraternity called Delta Theta. It was founded in 1922 by E. V. Schaeffer, L. J. Jacobson, and H. J. Vogt. Almost immediately after foundation, the members started to lay plans to become part of a national fraternity. Their interest in Lambda Chi Alpha was stimulated by visits of several of their members to the Rutgers Zeta, and by reading some copies of the fraternity publication. As a result, in 1923 Delta Theta petitioned informally for admission to Lambda Chi Alpha. In 1925 they were given permission to present their formal petition, which was passed in the spring of 1926. In November of the same year thirty members of Delta Theta were initiated into Lambda Chi Alpha by the chapter at Franklin and Marshall.

The rapid growth of the fraternity from Delta Theta to Gamma Psi Zeta of Lambda Chi Alpha has necessitated the occupation of three different houses. The first house was on Packer Avenue. This one was soon outgrown, and Delta Theta moved to Montclair Avenue. Here they became Lambda Chi Alpha. During the next year the fraternity purchased its present home on Delaware Avenue.

The members of Lambda Chi Alpha have enjoyed a prominent position in the life at Lehigh, and they have every reason to believe that this condition will continue in the future.

Chapter History

Phi Delta Theta was founded at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, in 1848. The bond of Phi Delta Theta, a statement of the principles upon which the fraternity was founded, was written by two of the founders and has never been altered. Expansion was slow until after the Civil War, at which time numerous Southern and Eastern chapters were installed. The policy of the national chapter is one of conservative expansion. At present there are 105 active chapters.

In 1882 a charter was granted to a group of students at Lehigh who were initiated by the chapter then in existence at Princeton. However, the chapter was short lived due to difficulties with the university authorities. In 1887, the Pennsylvania Eta Chapter of Phi Delta Theta revived its chapter, and the members were initiated by the Lafayette chapter. The charter members were R. P. Barnard, E. H. Beazell, C. Burkhardt, F. R. Coates, M. H. Fehnel, J. J. Lincoln, C. H. Miller, T. F. Newby, T. A. Straub, and A. T. Throop.

The original chapter house of Phi Delta Theta was on Broad Street, but, because of the increase in membership, it became necessary to obtain a larger house. Phi Delta Theta was then moved to what is now the Elk's home on Wyandotte Street where it remained until 1917, when the present chapter house was built.

With the aid of the alumni, especially F. T. Townsend, the present house on the campus was built and opened in 1917. It is an interesting fact that the house is built entirely from the stone of South Mountain on which it stands.

Chapter History

In 1885 Major Frank Keck of the Columbia chapter conceived the idea of locating a chapter of Phi Gamma Delta at Lehigh. The national fraternity, which was founded in 1848 at old Jefferson College in Cannonsburg, Pa., had just inaugurated a policy of expansion among the better colleges and universities in the country. With that idea in mind, Major Keck, in conjunction with William French of his chapter, communicated with William Pierce, Walter McFarland, Charles Butler, and Manuel Domenick, who were students at Lehigh.

These four men petitioned the national fraternity, and the petition, endorsed by the Lafayette chapter and the now defunct Muhlenberg chapter, was granted on January 12, 1886. However, establishment of the chapter could not be made public until its membership reached ten.

On the morning of January 15, 1886, Major Keck and eleven other "Fijis" from the Columbia chapter installed the Lehigh chapter. Seven new men were later initiated, and the chapter became firmly established at Lehigh.

Beta Chi's first house was on Market Street, but the rapid growth of the chapter made it necessary to move to larger quarters. Consequently, a house was obtained on Cherokee Street; this was occupied until 1922. In that year, due to the efforts of G. R. Brothers, L. A. Shoudy, T. H. Mueller, A. G. Rau, and R. J. Rems, a chapter house was built on the university campus and dedicated to those men.

The alumni who reside in Bethlehem are as follows: G. R. Brothers, N. M. Emery, G. H. Erwin, W. L. Estes, J. S. Hocker, W. F. Lewis, A. B. Mott, L. A. Shoudy, T. H. Mueller, A. G. Rau, H. B. Rau, H. W. Robinson, D. D. Schultz, W. R. Schrimmer, and O. R. Sheritt.

Chapter History

Phi Sigma Kappa Fraternity was founded at the Massachusetts Agricultural College, March 15, 1873. During the first five years of its existence it had no Greek name, but was generally known as the "Three T's." The organization became national in 1888 and now has forty-nine chapters.

In the main, the difficulties in developing a national organization were overcome by 1900. At that time there were twelve chapters which were, for the most part, well organized and disciplined. There had been developed a comprehensive system of national administration, and there was a fair measure of interest and support among the alumni.

Since 1900 the fraternity has steadily progressed. The chapter roll has quadrupled. There has been a material increase in alumni interest, so that today Phi Sigma Kappa stands as one of the group of longest established national fraternities, a recognized leader in the field.

The Lehigh chapter, Nu, was founded by Charles Murray, William Landis, Robert Thoroughgood, Henry Walters, and Frederick Downes in 1901.

The first chapter house was located at 511 Seneca Street, but it was soon moved to Packer Avenue. During the World War so few members were left that those remaining had to live in one house with another fraternity group. When the chapter was again able to function independently, a house on Wyandotte Street was obtained. Ten years later the chapter outgrew this house and moved to 437 West Third Street where it remained until the summer of 1933. At this time the chapter moved to its present home at 406 Delaware Avenue.

Chapter History

The friendship of six Confederate soldiers who had fought together through the Civil War provided the incentive for the founding of Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity at the University of Virginia in 1868. Due to the unsettled condition of the South after the Civil War, the fraternity led a precarious existence for the first few years. A convention at Hampton-Sydney in 1889 of three of the four active chapters gave the fraternity new life, and since then it has expanded steadily. Until 1909 membership was limited to southern and southwestern states, but during that year all geographical restrictions were removed; and now Pi Kappa Alpha has seventy-seven chapters located throughout the country.

In December, 1924, a group of Lehigh students, becoming dissatisfied with dormitory life and desiring more intimate contacts with their friends, broke away from the old routine and founded the "Seal Club." This name was later changed to the "Lehigh Ivy Club." The original club-house contained a dining room, a living room, and living accommodations for only three men. In September, 1925, the club moved to larger quarters which had accommodations for twelve men.

In the early part of May, 1926, the Zeta Chi Fraternity was founded by seven members of the "Lehigh Ivy Club." They were as follows: Arthur W. Canney and Merrill E. Welsh, 1927; Norman S. Young, Wesley W. S. Mueller, and Elmer H. Talbert, 1928; and Frederick Erlicher, 1929. On December 6, 1929, the fraternity became the Gamma Lambda Chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha and was installed at 535 Montclair Avenue. In June, 1930, the chapter moved to its present location at 306 Wyandotte Street.

Chapter History

Lambda Chapter, prior to the granting of its charter by Pi Lambda Phi in 1915, was known as the Pioneer Club of Bethlehem. Ellis Brodstein, Louis M. Levin, Julius M. Rapoport, Harold Jandorf Solomon, Morton J. Kay, and S. Shirley Swadkin were the founders. The local chapter is a branch of a fraternity created at Yale University in 1895 for the purpose of eliminating sectarianism in American colleges. The house was located at the corner of Market and Center Streets until 1931, at which time the fraternity moved to its present location at 827 Bishopthorpe Street, in what was then known as Bishopthorpe Manor.

In the intervening years the membership has been maintained at between twenty and thirty brothers. In this period the fraternity has assumed its full share of campus activities and leadership. Its rise has been marked by the acquisition of such trophies as the baseball, football, basketball, bridge, and table tennis cups. Outstanding among the trophies is the Interfraternity Scholarship Cup which was awarded by Phi Sigma Kappa. Lambda has gained possession of it six out of eleven times and now has possession of it for the second consecutive time.

In the past, as well as in the present, Pi Lambda men have been and are active on the varsity football, baseball, wrestling, track and tennis teams. In addition, Lambda Chapter has been well represented in Lehigh honor and course societies.

Pi Lambda Phi has been a member of the Interfraternity Council since 1917.

Chapter History

In November, 1833, the Psi Upsilon Fraternity was founded at Union College by seven undergraduates who had resolved to counteract the tendencies of the older secret societies by the formation of a broader and more liberal society. The first association was formed for election purposes, and the symbols, motto, and colors of garnet and gold were chosen.

In 101 years of conservative growth Psi Upsilon has lost only two of her twenty-eight chapters, and these were at Yale and Harvard where University conditions made it impossible for them to continue as part of a national organization. The Beta Chapter at Yale was dropped last year and is now known as "The Fence."

In 1880 two members of Psi Upsilon in the Lehigh faculty, E. H. Williams, Jr., and H. C. Johnson, interested several undergraduates in petitioning the Psi Upsilon convention for a chapter charter. These men had organized as the Eta Chapter of Phi Theta Psi. Their petition was granted in 1883, and the chapter was installed on February 22, 1884.

Through the efforts of E. H. Williams, Jr., founder of Tau Beta Pi, a chapter house was provided at 28 Market Street. In 1908 plans for the present house on Brodhead Avenue were drawn up by T. C. Visscher, '99, who died on January 12, 1935. This house, financed by the alumni, was occupied in the fall of 1909 as the second fraternity house on the campus. After much complaining about the Lehigh Commons, meals were first served in the chapter house under improvised conditions and under the supervision of Theobald Forstall, '16, in 1914. In 1931 a dining room and kitchen were added to the main building.

Chapter History

In the spring of 1923, the local fraternity, Eta Alpha Phi, was installed as the Sigma Kappa Chapter of Sigma Alpha Mu at Lehigh University. The first chapter house was located on Cherokee Street. Next the home of Sigma Alpha Mu was at Broadway and Seminole Street. Then a move was made to a new house on Wyandotte Street in 1925. Under the leadership of "Czar" Nehemiah in 1926, the undergraduates, with the support of their alumni, purchased the present home at 506 West Third Street.

The first members of the chapter were Frederick Coleman, Benjamin Epstein, Meyer Garber, David Getz, Walter Grosman, Elheim Lang, Maurice Nehemiah, Clement Shifreen, George Sall, Barney Wollensky, and the present chapter advisor, Robert Lewis. Clement Shifreen was the first Prior.

Sigma Alpha Mu has the distinction of having as a member Lehigh's first national champion, Julius Seligson. Athletically and scholastically, the chapter has ranked among the best. Two of the best pitchers Lehigh has had, "Scotty" Seltzer and Mort Strauss, were members of Sigma Alpha Mu. The chapter boasts also of the unprecedented honor of having had five captains in one year.

Sigma Kappa of Sigma Alpha Mu has rigidly adhered to its principle "to foster and maintain among its sons a spirit of loyalty to, and love for, Alma Mater, and to form a close social and fraternal union of Jewish students in the various universities, colleges, and professional schools in America."

Chapter History

The Sigma Chi Fraternity originated after the refusal of six members of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Chapter at Miami University to vote for a fraternity brother who was a candidate for a campus office. These six men: Thomas C. Bell, James P. Caldwell, Daniel W. Cooper, Isaac M. Jordan, Benjamin P. Runkle, and Franklin H. Scobey, voluntarily withdrew from the chapter, associated themselves with William L. Lockwood, and established a new secret society.

They assumed the name of Sigma Phi, apparently unaware of the existence of another organization of the same name in the East. Early in the succeeding year, rivals stole the ritual and the constitution, and new ones were drawn up with the name changed to Sigma Chi. A second chapter was installed the same year, and since then the expansion has been constant. At the present time there are in the United States ninety-three active chapters, two chapters in Canada, and one in Halifax, Nova Scotia.

During the Civil War, with many universities closed, seven "Sigs" kept alive the fraternity spark by organizing a chapter in the Confederate Army, which they termed the Constantine Chapter. This unique organization of Sigma Chi held regular meetings and conducted two initiations during the Civil War period.

The fore-runner of the Alpha Rho Chapter at Lehigh was the Crimmon Halberd Society which successfully petitioned the national fraternity in 1886 and again in 1893 after three years of inactivity. Although planning a campus site, the fraternity is now situated in a beautiful home at 240 East Broad Street.

Chapter History

Sigma Nu was founded as the "Legion of Honor" at Virginia Military Institute, in Lexington, Va., on January 1, 1869. The fraternity was founded to oppose the severe hazing methods of a group of upperclassmen who called themselves the "Black-feet." A year after the founding, the Greek name, Sigma Nu, was adopted.

During the first years of Sigma Nu, its expansion was entirely in the South. About fifteen years after the founding, the fraternity started to expand northward and westward. In 1885, Charles W. Lohse, who was affiliated with the Bethany Chapter, founded a Sigma Nu chapter at Lehigh.

Pi's first fraternity house was on Brodhead Avenue; later, through the cooperation of the alumni, Sigma Nu was able to build its present house in Sayre Park. This house was erected in 1915.

The trials and difficulties of the founding of Pi Chapter in 1885 are written by one of the founders in the first chapter letter: "Although somewhat isolated, we feel united by the bonds of Sigma Nu. There were many obstacles in our way; but now, since we have overcome them, we have not only strengthened the fraternal feeling existing between us, but we have the gratification of knowing that each contributed to the successful establishment of Pi. Our work is not yet finished, but we have no fears for its successful outcome."

Since its founding Sigma Nu has expanded a great deal and now has ninety-eight chapters. Pi is chapter fifteen.

Chapter History

The Sigma Phi Society, founded at Union College in 1827, is the second oldest of the college social fraternities. Kappa Alpha, Sigma Phi, and Delta Phi, all founded within a few years of each other, are known as the Union Triad.

The Sigma Phi Society has always followed a policy of conservatism, believing that a true spirit of friendship in any organization can prevail only when the size of the membership is restricted. Because of this conservatism, only twelve chapters have been founded during the 108 years of the Society's existence. The active chapters are located at Union, Hamilton, Williams, Hobart, University of Vermont, University of Michigan, Lehigh, Cornell, University of Wisconsin, and University of California.

The Alpha of Pennsylvania was installed at Lehigh in 1887 upon the granting of the petition for a charter to a local organization known as the Beta Beta Club. This was composed of a group of students who, dissatisfied with conditions in a social fraternity to which they belonged, had resigned and formed this new club with the distinct purpose of applying for a charter from a national fraternity. Twenty-six men were initiated at the installation ceremonies, among them being some of the chapter's prominent alumni.

The Sigma Phi Society was the ninth national fraternity to install a chapter at Lehigh. The present chapter house, built in 1888, was the first to be built by any fraternity at Lehigh. In 1925 it was completely renovated and modernized.

Chapter History

The national fraternity of Sigma Phi Epsilon was first instituted at what is now called the University of Richmond, then called Richmond College, in 1901. Many of the older chapters were formed for the purpose of later becoming chapters of Sigma Phi Epsilon; but later most of the chapters were absorbed local clubs or local fraternities. The chapter at Richmond took in several students of theology, a very unusual occurrence. For this reason, and because the badge was heart-shaped, they were called the "Sacred Hearts." The parent chapter held entire control of the government until 1903. At the first convention a Charter Committee was formed of three men to control granting of charters, and in 1908 two more were added to the committee as the Executive Committee. This body had complete control of the fraternity until 1909, when four divisions were made, each with its executive officers who report to the Executive Committee.

At the 1908 National Conclave, the Lehigh Chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon was granted its charter as the Pennsylvania Epsilon Chapter. The group was formed by the resigning members of Omega Pi Alpha. In 1907 this was known as Delta Epsilon and had a membership of sixteen men.

The first Pennsylvania Epsilon house was located on West Fourth Street. A few years later the chapter purchased a house on the northwest corner of Fourth and Wyandotte Streets. In 1923 they moved to the present house at 66 West Market Street.

The founders of Pennsylvania Epsilon are as follows: J. H. Wiley, J. A. Seacrest, N. J. Greenough, E. S. Foster, N. H. Sayford, W. J. Priestley, E. C. Setter, R. E. Loper, J. H. Hills, J. H. Westerbeck, L. C. D. Greenough, F. D. Schneller, C. H. Polie, E. W. Ehmann, F. N. Sayford, and J. R. Hall.

Chapter History

Tau Chapter of Tau Delta Phi was founded at Lehigh in 1926 under the name of Upsilon Kappa by a group of nine men who were dissatisfied with the prevailing fraternity conditions. On January 8, 1927, after the national convention held during the previous year had voted to admit Upsilon Kappa as Tau Chapter of Tau Delta Phi, the national officers inducted the new chapter.

Tau Delta Phi was founded at the College of the City of New York in 1910 and expanded cautiously until 1933. At this time Omicron Alpha Tau, another national fraternity, chose to petition Tau Delta Phi for acceptance, but only five of the stronger chapters were admitted at this time. Now, on the twenty-fifth anniversary of its birth, the fraternity has twenty-five strong chapters one in every part of the United States and Canada.

Motivated by a desire to maintain close contact with each other and with the chapter, alumni of the Lehigh chapter have formed two graduate clubs, one in New York and one in Baltimore.

Men from the chapter have always figured prominently in extra-curricular activities, the scope of their endeavor extending into publications, athletics, honorary societies, and class offices.

Tau Chapter was first located at 240 West Packer Avenue, and then at 527 Montclair Avenue; but in 1929, when better and more spacious quarters were needed, the present home of the fraternity on Delaware Avenue was acquired from Robert E. Wilbur.

Chapter History

Theta Delta Chi Fraternity held its first meeting in Old North Hall at Union College on October 31, 1847. Since that time the fraternity has enjoyed a prosperous life. The policy of conservative growth has limited the Charge's enrollment to a rather short list, and Nu Deuteron was one of the last charges admitted to the fraternity. Theta Delta Chi was the first fraternity to institute the use of many of the things now so integral a part of all fraternities. The use of a pledge button, a fraternity flag, a fraternity magazine, and the Grand Lodge form of central government were all initiated by Theta Delta Chi.

Nu Deuteron Charge was founded on June 14, 1884, by Charles Luchenbach, Horace Luchenbach, Mason Pratt, John Spengler, Charles Thomas, Edward Van Kirk, and was the fifth fraternity to be installed at Lehigh.

Various located houses were occupied by the Charge until 1919, when the present home on South Mountain was erected.

Among the locally prominent graduates of the Charge are the following: Eugene Grace, president of the Bethlehem Steel Co., Walter R. Okeson, alumni secretary and treasurer of the University, and chairman of the National Football Rules Committee, Professor Harry M. Ullman, head of the Chemistry Department, Archibald Johnson, former president of the Bethlehem Steel Co., and Alfred Glancy, vice-president of the General Motors Corporation, and a member of the Board of Trustees of the University.

Chapter History

The Theta Kappa Phi Fraternity had its birthplace at Lehigh University a short time after the World War. It existed as a local until 1922, when a union with Kappa Theta of Pennsylvania State College established the fraternity as a national order. The Lehigh chapter became the Alpha and the Penn State chapter the Beta.

The fraternity was developed through the efforts of the charter members: Frederick C. Beck, August Concilio, Elliot F. Daniels, Joseph McBride, John Musdakakis, and Gaspard Savaria. The original ritual of the local, because of its strength and strictness, was kept; and under the policy set forth in it, a cautious policy of expansion was begun. There are now eleven chapters in the East and Middle West.

The purpose of the founders was "to bring students into brotherly relationship; to encourage the attainment of high scholastic standing; to promote the spirit of good fellowship; and to offer each and every member that training and environment which characterizes the university or college man."

The fraternity has always had a house, the first one on Vine Street being secured soon after the original group was organized. That house was occupied until 1925 when the present house at 685 Delaware Avenue was acquired. In reference to the first house, it might be stated that the leadership of August Concilio and the capable guidance and sound advice of Msgr. McGarvey, then the pastor of the Holy Infancy Church, were invaluable in its organization.

Chapter History

The Theta Xi Fraternity was founded at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute on April 29, 1864. It was the result of two dissenting factions within the then existing Sigma Delta Fraternity, a local organization founded at Rensselaer in 1859. These dissenters, eight in number, withdrew from Sigma Delta and formed a new society with the intention of making it national in scope. They signed the constitution and took the fraternal oath.

The charter to Eta Chapter was granted to a local Lehigh organization known as the Lehigh Herman Club which had been on the campus since the last decade of the last century. Fourteen charter members were initiated on December 3, 1903. Since that time more than two hundred and fifty men have received initiation into the fraternity.

The original chapter house was located at 431 Cherokee Street, but about 1908 the chapter moved to 541 Seneca Street, where it remained until 1918. For a short period during the World War the fraternity had no house, but meetings were regularly held in a room at the Five Points. Immediately after the war a house was secured on North New Street, and, when larger quarters became necessary, the fraternity moved to East Church Street. In September, 1928, the present house was obtained at 407 Delaware Avenue. In its approximately thirty-two years of existence, Eta Chapter of Theta Xi has held meetings in seven different houses.

The founders of Eta Chapter of Theta Xi are as follows: W. R. Ehlers, J. A. Bochringer, N. H. Kuryla, W. C. Benedict, A. L. Broomall, C. R. Clingerman, H. A. Church, D. K. Dean, H. F. Eigenbrodt, A. C. Flory, D. H. Lamke, W. J. Ammer, H. C. Beeker, and C. E. Lilliestrand.

LEHIGH—52, HAVERFORD—7

Scoring more points than were scored as a total last year, Lehigh opened the season with a decisive victory over Haverford. The first score came as a result of a pass from Fairbanks to Captain Ock. Carlin made another six points after Fairbanks, receiving the ball on Lehigh's forty-six-yard line, had run to the opponents' six-yard mark. Ock converted. Reidy was substituted, and he immediately ran sixteen yards for a touchdown. On the next kickoff he ran the ball seventy-one yards to make the score 25-0. The conversion was made. A pass and conversion brought the score to thirty-three points for the Brown and White. Haverford then made their only touchdown when they recovered a fumble on the Lehigh twelve-yard line and tossed a pass which was completed in the end zone. Shortly after the second half opened, Ock crashed center for a touchdown from Haverford's twenty-yard line, and Reidy converted. A few minutes later, Carlin ran twenty-eight yards around end to score. Haverford's kickoff went over the goal-line. On the next play Fairbanks took the ball on Lehigh's twenty-yard line and ran for a touchdown. This ended the scoring, for the ball remained near the midfield stripe until the close of the game.

LEHIGH—7, JOHN HOPKINS 6

The game played with Johns Hopkins was won by a single point, Reidy's conversion after Ock had tied the score. Hopkins made a touchdown late in the second quarter on a pass, after it had been stopped twice very close to the Lehigh goal-line. Pazzetti kicked out of danger two times, but the "Doctors" were successful on their third attempt at a score. Luckily for the Brown and White, the try for the point after the touchdown was not good. The half ended with Hopkins leading 6-0. The third period saw the Engineers march down the field to score their winning point after their only touchdown. The Lehigh team continued to assume the offensive, but it was not again close to another score. Carlin did go over for a touchdown, but it was annulled by a penalty called against one of the linemen.

F O O T B A L L

Largely as a result of Lehigh errors, Penn State gained an impressive 31-0 victory. Fumbles, blocked or partially blocked kicks, and intercepted passes gave the Nittany Lion the ball deep in Lehigh's territory on five occasions. Penn State would undoubtedly have won without the breaks, as the Lions' team was considerably larger and heavier. Statistics, however, show that the score should not have been so large, as Lehigh made six first downs to the opponents' eleven. State attempted nine passes and completed two, and Lehigh threw eight, completing three.

State did not start its scoring until late in the first quarter. The Lions opened the scoring after they recovered a poor kick by Lehigh, giving them the ball on the Brown and white 40-yard line. Diversified attack brought the ball to the 28-yard line, and Silvano crashed center on a reverse and crossed the goal-line. The next score resulted when Reidy fumbled on a fake kick play, and State recovered on Lehigh's 13-yard line. In two plays the second touchdown was made.

Early in the second quarter State scored their third touchdown. Lehigh received the kickoff and for the first time in the game threatened the opponents when Captain Ock received an 18-yard pass from Fairbanks. The Brown and White team was forced to yield the ball on downs, and State advanced to Lehigh's 34-yard marker as the half ended.

Lehigh had one of its few breaks in the third period when it took possession of the ball at mid-field. The Engineers' offensive proved ineffective, and the ball was lost. In the fourth period Coach Harmeson substituted reserve material, and Lehigh advanced the ball from the 16-yard line to their own 42-yard marker in two plays. State's line held, and Lehigh was forced to kick. The punt was blocked, and the Lions succeeded in completing a pass which ended the scoring for the game.

RUTGERS—45, LEHIGH—0

The Lehigh team was able to hold Rutgers on even terms for the first twenty minutes of the game. The Scarlet team then proved too much for the Brown and White line, and the opponents started their victorious attack. From this time on the Rutgers game was more or less a repetition of the Penn State game.

McCoy, receiving the opening kickoff, fumbled on Lehigh's 30-yard line, and the Scarlet recovered the ball. Rutgers first drive, however, was unsuccessful. Later the opponents completed a long pass to a short distance from the goal-line. Only a few plays were necessary for the team from New Brunswick to gain its first touchdown.

Rutgers' second touchdown was completed a few minutes after the second quarter opened. Frank, their efficient and alert quarterback, snatched a bounding punt from the midst of a group of Brown and White players, and raced for a touchdown. The Scarlet team was able to add another touchdown to their favor before the half ended.

Lehigh seemed to have gained strength during the period between halves, and in the third quarter the opponents were held to one touchdown. The constant hammering during this period proved too much for the linemen, as the results of the fourth period attack showed. Rutgers was able to run the score to forty-five points without any serious opposition on the part of the Brown and White.

GETTYSBURG—14, LEHIGH—0

Once more Lehigh errors paved the way for a victory for the opponents. In the first period a fumble by Lehigh on the Gettysburg 1-yard line deprived the Brown and White team of a certain touchdown. The half ended with neither team taking advantage of several scoring possibilities.

At the opening of the third quarter, Lehigh came on the field with a strong determination to win. The Brown and White offensive made a series of first downs and seemed headed for a score. A 15-yard penalty halted the drive, and the ball was lost when Gettysburg recovered a fumble. The Battlefield team scored its first touchdown in the fourth period after Lehigh had fumbled on its 15-yard line. A few plays resulted in six points, and the try for extra point was successful. The Lehigh line was considerably weakened by this time and was unable to keep Gettysburg from scoring another seven points. The second touchdown came shortly after a partially blocked kick gave Gettysburg the ball on the Lehigh 20-yard line.

PRINCETON—54, LEHIGH—0

Lehigh showed a good deal of improvement in the Princeton game regardless of the 54-0 defeat in one of the hardest games of the season. The Brown and White team was not penalized throughout the game and made only one fumble to four for the Orange and Black. Lehigh averaged 44-yard punts, showing a decided improvement in that department of the game. Peet's excellent kicking enabled Lehigh to get out of many bad situations.

Princeton scored two touchdowns and as many extra points in the first period. In the second quarter it crossed the Lehigh goal-line three times, and the Brown and White team's showing was changed considerably, for the three scores were made on four plays.

In spite of the hammering of the first half, the Lehigh team came out strong in the second half and held the opponents to fourteen points. The Brown and White stopped the Orange and Black three times in the shadow of the goal-posts and prevented the score from being larger. The game ended with Lehigh in possession of the ball after a fumble by the opponents.

LEHIGH—13, MUHLENBERG—0

Lehigh defeated Muhlenberg in one of the hardest fought contests seen in Taylor Stadium this year. The victory was witnessed by a large House Party crowd. An excess of penalties prevented the Brown and White team from scoring until the final period. Costly fumbles and errors, which were such a large factor in the previous defeats of the season, were not in evidence.

Lehigh kicked-off to Muhlenberg, and Muhlenberg lost the ball on downs immediately. Playing continued with a constant exchange of the ball until Muhlenberg threatened by intercepting a pass on the Lehigh 22-yard marker. The Mules took too long to line up for a try for a field goal and received a 5-yard penalty. The attempt was unsuccessful.

Lehigh opened the second quarter by completing a pass. McCoy ran for a gain of 40-yards on the next play only to be recalled for a five yard offside penalty. Lehigh did not threaten further until near the end of the period when it completed another pass which brought the ball to the Mules' 12-yard line. The Engineers gained six yards only to lose the same yardage on an end run. Muhlenberg took possession of the ball as the half ended.

The third period was uneventful, although Lehigh continually threatened the Cardinal and Grey. Early in the last quarter Lehigh made an aerial attack, and a pass, Ock to Walton, netted twenty-eight yards. On the fourth down Ock threw another pass to Walton, who ran for a touchdown. Reidy converted. Muhlenberg then resorted to lateral passes in a desperate attempt to tie the score. Stallings intercepted one and ran for the second touchdown. Fairbanks failed to make the extra point. Lehigh played the remaining minutes with a substitute team which was unable to further score.

LEHIGH—13, LAFAYETTE 7

Lehigh closed the football season with a well-earned victory, upsetting Lafayette 13-7. It was a game of breaks and errors, but the Brown and White team took advantage of the breaks and made very few errors. The scoring came late in the second quarter after a strong attack which could not be daunted. The Marquis lost their goal posts for the first time since 1918.

Early in the opening period Lafayette blocked a Lehigh punt and took possession of the ball on the Brown and White 8-yard line. The Lehigh line did not yield, and the Maroon lost the ball on downs. Peet dropped back into kick formation, but instead of kicking, ran for a 40-yard gain. Unfortunately, he fumbled when he was tackled, and a Lafayette man recovered the ball. The drive was again halted on the Lehigh 7-yard line. Late in the same quarter, Preston blocked a Lafayette punt, and Morrison fell on the ball. Stallings received a pass from McCoy and ran to the 24-yard Maroon line. On the next play, another pass was completed by McCoy to the 4-yard line. Lehigh then fumbled, and the Leopard captain recovered the ball on the 2-yard line as the quarter ended.

In the second period the Leopards fumbled on their 28-yard mark, and Stallings recovered. Fairbanks threw a pass to McCoy, who was downed on the 1-yard line. Carlin took the ball over for a touchdown. Reidy, substituted for Fairbanks, failed to make the conversion. Shortly after the kickoff, Lafayette tried its passing game. Peet intercepted one and ran to the opponents' 20-yard stripe. Three successive power plays took the ball over for another six points. Reidy successfully kicked the extra point, and the half ended with the score 13-0 in Lehigh's favor.

Throughout the second half Lehigh played a defensive game. Neither team threatened in the third quarter. The Leopards went to the air again in the last period. The Maroon completed two passes which brought the ball to the Brown and White 5-yard marker. From this point Lafayette rushed the ball for the single touchdown. The try for extra point was successful. Superb playing by Scobey and, in fact, by the whole Brown and White team prevented further score by the Maroon. The game ended after Reidy had intercepted a pass on the Lafayette 35-yard line a few minutes after the kickoff.

SUMMARY

The Lehigh football team completed the season with a record of four victories and four defeats. The opening game with Haverford was won by a large margin, chiefly because of Haverford's weakness. In the next four games, Johns Hopkins, Penn State, Gettysburg, and Rutgers, fumbles and penalties greatly marred the team's performance. In spite of costly errors, the Brown and White defeated Johns Hopkins by a very narrow margin. Much improvement was shown in the Princeton contest, contrary to what was indicated by the score. Results were unfavorable because the Orange and Black offered the stiffest opposition of the season. In the last two games, Muhlenberg and Lafayette, Lehigh was victorious because of its dominating fighting spirit. Here the team seemed to forget the past games and refrained from fumbling and other serious errors. Two victories were won, and the 1933 defeats were avenged.

REVIEW OF THE 1935 WRESTLING SEASON

Lehigh finished the 1935 season in a blaze of glory after she had lost three collegiate dual meets, the first defeats in three years. The number of consecutive victories reached twenty-four before a defeat by Navy. Although the Brown and White was not favored to win, Lehigh again holds the Eastern Intercollegiate Team Championship for the eighth time in nine years.

Two Lehigh men were crowned Intercollegiate Champions, Ashman in the 118-pound division, and Scobey in the unlimited class. It was Ashman's first year of intercollegiate wrestling, and he was undefeated and second high scorer for the season. Scobey was high scorer for the Brown and White and was undefeated also. As a reward for his past performance, Scobey was chosen captain for the 1936 season.

In the opening meet the Lehigh wrestlers defeated Syracuse, 29-3. Ashman, Crockett, Carlin, and Goodrich won by falls, and Captain Case, Conrad, and Scobey won by time advantages. Gonzales wrestled Service, captain of the Orange, and lost on a referee's decision after two extra periods. Although the meet resulted in a one-sided victory for the Brown and White, nevertheless Syracuse had a strong team. It was shown in this contest that Lehigh would have a very well-balanced team for the 1935 competition.

The matmen lost a 17-15 decision to the highly-skilled New York Athletic Club. It was the first defeat in twenty-two starts, but the meet was only an exhibition. Ashman and Scobey threw their opponents, but Captain Case lost in an extra period by a small time advantage.

The wrestling team conquered Yale 20-12 in a close meet. The team was greatly handicapped by the absence of Case, Gonzales, and Carlin. Ashman, Wolcott, and Scobey won by falls. Scobey threw his man with a bar and chancery hold in fifty seconds. Crockett also won by a fall to bring the score to twenty points.

Another victory was scored by Coach Sheridan's men over Lafayette. Combining five falls and two decisions, the Brown and White earned 31 points to 3 for the Maroon. Ashman, Wolcott, Picking, Goodrich, and Scobey scored falls, while Clow and acting-Captain Crockett succeeded in getting time advantages of 9:57 and 8:14 respectively.

An impressive record of twenty-four straight collegiate victories was ended when a strong Navy team won, 26-8. The United States Naval Academy won by four falls and two time decisions. Ashman defeated his opponent to retain his unmarred record in college meets. Scobey had little difficulty in throwing his man in 2:06.

Penn State's wrestlers showed unexpected strength and defeated the Lehigh matmen, 20-6. State made its points on five decisions and one fall. Lehigh's points were the results of decisions gained by Ashman and Scobey. Ashman won an impressive victory with a time advantage of nine minutes. Scobey also kept his undefeated record by defeating O'Dowd, State heavyweight, with a time advantage of seven minutes.

In the following meet the Brown and White grapplers defeated Cornell, 24-6, to regain its winning stride. Conrad pinned Brownell with a double bar and reverse chancery hold, Scobey threw his opponent with a bar and chancery, and Clow, Ashman, and Goodrich won on time decisions. The match between Captain Case and Loros of Cornell was very interesting; two extra periods of three minutes each were wrestled, but the bout ended in a draw.

The Princeton wrestling team upset the Lehigh matmen in a very close contest, 17-13. The Tigers, who had been previously defeated by Yale and Columbia, showed a complete reversal of form as they gained a fall and four decisions. Rudy Ashman scored two falls in his bout. Loux, wrestling in the 165-pound class, won on a time advantage of 6:45, although he nearly had a fall several times. Scobey scored a fall over Rawls, but he had more difficulty with Rawls than with any other heavyweight during the season.

In the last dual meet of the season, the Brown and White narrowly defeated the University of Pennsylvania, 16-14. The results of the first four bouts were a tie score. Crockett then threw his man with a bar nelson and reverse chancery to put Lehigh in the lead by five points. Loux lost by a time advantage and Goodrich was thrown. Pennsylvania took the lead by three points. Scobey decided the outcome of the meet by throwing his opponent and scoring five points.

Lehigh surprised the collegiate wrestling world by successfully defending her Eastern Intercollegiate wrestling title. The Brown and White upset the hopes of Penn State, and won for the fifth consecutive time. Strategic weight shifting by Coach Sheridan immediately preceding the meet, laid the foundation for the startling victory. Scobey and Ashman lived up to expectations by gaining individual titles in the heavyweight and lightweight classes respectively. Scobey scored the maximum number of points possible for a contestant. He threw every opponent to net eight points for Lehigh. Ashman scored six points, Loux and Conrad scored four, and Davenport scored one, making a total of twenty-three points. Penn State was second with seventeen points. Ashman made the most spectacular showing by throwing his first opponent, Lustbader of Columbia, in the remarkable time of twelve seconds.

The National Intercollegiate wrestling meet was held at Lehigh for the second time in three years. Forty colleges with 142 contestants entered the competition, and Oklahoma A. and M. again won the title. Coach Billy Sheridan entered a full team for the Brown and White. Scobey took second place in the heavyweight division, losing to McDaniels of Indiana, who was crowned champion. Lehigh scored eight points to tie Penn State for fifth place.

Coach Sheridan was re-elected to the presidency of the American Amateur Wrestling Coaches Association.

REVIEW OF THE 1934 BASEBALL SEASON

The 1934 baseball season was not a successful one for the Brown and White. Out of the fourteen games played, there were five victories and nine setbacks.

In the opening game of the season the Michigan Wolverines defeated the home team, 11-5. Link pitched very well until the eighth and ninth innings when the visitors scored 6 runs to win. The Lehigh nine won their first victory in defeating Swarthmore 10-3.

The sub-Freshmen witnessed the next game in which the Brown and White batmen defeated Rutgers by 6-5. Scoring 6 runs in the first three innings, Lehigh played a tight game and kept the Scarlet from making more than 5 runs. The following contest with Ursinus was very loosely played and resulted in a victory for the team from Collegeville. The score was 18 runs for Ursinus, 7 for Lehigh. In a similar game, Lehigh trimmed Haverford, 23-9. Kuhl and Holler pitched for the Adamsmen.

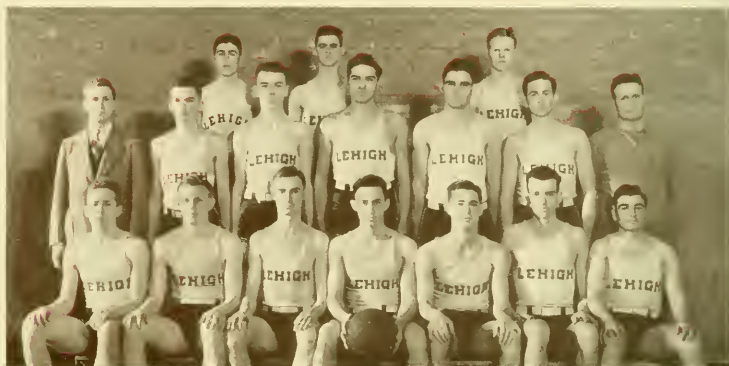

Houseparty weekend brought forth a large crowd to the Lafayette game. Kuhl was replaced by Holler after five Maroon men had crossed the plate. The final score was Lafayette 7, Lehigh 3.

Weakness in fielding, hitting, and pitching spelled defeat for the Brown and White in the next five games. Rutgers won its second contest with Lehigh by the score 11-4. The Scarlet scored 6 runs in one inning to definitely decide the game. In the second Lafayette game, 22 hits by the Maroon and 10 errors by Lehigh enabled Lafayette to win 15-8. The Brown and White bowed to Muhlenberg 5-1 and to Villanova 16-6 in two unimpressive games.

Although the Army game was a defeat, it was one of the most interesting games of the season. Kuhl held the West Pointers scoreless until the eighth inning when they made one run. Lehigh tied the score in its half of the inning, but Army added another run to win in the ninth.

After allowing the Lord Jeffs from Amherst to score three runs in the first three innings, the Brown and White nine rallied in the fifth to take the lead and hold it successfully to the end of the game. The final score was 7-6 in favor of Lehigh. On Alumni day the team lost to Muhlenberg 20-0 in a very poorly played game.

REVIEW OF THE 1935 BASKETBALL SEASON

In the opening game of the season West Chester State Teachers' College defeated the Lehigh quintet 51-15. The Brown and White team was greatly handicapped through the lack of experienced men and but four days of practice under Coach Harneson. Stroudsburg won the next game, 40-32. At the half the score was a tie, but the Lehigh court-squad lagged after its captain was taken from the game because of an injury.

Lehigh lead 19-13 at halftime against Princeton, but finally succumbed to a varied Orange and Black attack. The score was 44-23. In the following game with Drake the Brown and White cagers were defeated 58-32. The visitors met a good deal of opposition in the first half but succeeded in outplaying Lehigh in the second. In an extra-period contest Haverford defeated the team, 30-24. Lehigh lost mainly through its inability to shoot accurately.

The Dickinson team defeated Lehigh on the former's court, 54-33. The Engineers adopted a defensive game for the most part in the final quarter. They rallied once, but were unable to overcome the large lead. Completely outclassing Stevens, the Lehigh courtmen won a decisive victory of 45-30; at no time were the opponents in the lead. Captain Pharo, Henry, and Gearhart held high-scoring honors for the evening. The next game was lost by 45-44 to P.M.C. A pass to Henry as the final whistle blew was almost successful in gaining the needed points.

A 57-25 defeat at the hands of Rutgers followed. The long shots of the Scarlet team proved to be too much for the Brown and White. The return engagement was an extremely close contest. The Lehigh quintet defeated the Scarlet 47-45 when Henry shot a goal in the last minute of play. A great improvement in Lehigh's foul-shooting was in part responsible for this well-earned victory.

Rallying in the closing minutes of the contest, Lehigh defeated Lafayette 35-33 in the first game of the traditional series. The Brown and White team was very slow in getting started, but the last few minutes resulted in victory by a narrow margin. Another strong second-half attack was responsible for a win over Swarthmore, 58-35.

Taking full advantage of Lehigh's inaccurate passing, Lafayette gained an early lead in the second game. The lead was maintained by the Leopards, and the final score was 29-25. Muhlenberg won the closing game of the season, 48-38. The Mules were not assured of victory until they made a spirited rally late in the game.

REVIEW OF THE 1934 SEASON

With only three men returning from last year's cross country team, the prospects of a good season were not very bright. The team lost but one dual meet and concluded one of the most successful seasons in recent years.

In the opening meet with Penn State, the harriers lost 15-48. The Nittany Lions made a perfect score, taking the first six places. Captain Bayer of the Lehigh team was the first Brown and White man to place. He finished seventh with the time of 29 minutes, 54 seconds, for the 5.1-mile course.

Reversing the scoring situation in the meet with Ursinus, Lehigh took the first five places for a perfect score of 15 points to 48 for the opponents. Captain Bayer again was the first Lehigh man to finish, running the 5-mile course in 28 minutes, 54 seconds. Bill Smith came in second 5 seconds later.

Lehigh took second place with 35 points in the Middle Three title meet held at New Brunswick. Rutgers won the title with 25, and Lafayette was third with 60 points. Bill Smith was the first man to place for the Brown and White, finishing fourth. He ran the 6-mile course in 36 minutes, 41 seconds. Two Smith brothers from Rutgers tied for first, and another Smith from the Scarlet was third. Captain Bayer, Taussig, Broughal, and Langdon placed fifth, seventh, ninth, and tenth respectively.

The Brown and White harriers defeated Lafayette in the closing meet of the season by the close score of 22-23. Bill Smith, taking the lead in the first mile, won the race without being forced. Captain Bayer finished second, the Maroon captain third, and Ed Broughal fourth. Smith's time, the fastest Lehigh time this year, was 28 minutes, 58 seconds, for the 5.1-mile course. The meet was clinched when Langdon passed two Lafayette men on the home stretch to come in in sixth place.

REVIEW OF THE 1934 SOCCER SEASON

The return of three lettermen and five regulars made the prospects for the 1934 season very promising. A difficult schedule resulted in one victory, though every game was hard fought, and defeats were registered by narrow margins.

Opening the season with the University of Pennsylvania, the Lehigh booters held the Eastern Intercollegiate League champions to the score 3-0. Lehigh threatened to score several times, but all attempts were unsuccessful. Playing an excellent defensive game, the Brown and White lost to Army by 3-1. The booters, showing marked improvement, lost a tight game to Princeton, 1-0. The winning tally came when a Tiger substitute followed up a free kick and successfully booted the ball by the Lehigh goalie.

Breaking into the winning column, the Brown and White upset a strong Navy team 2-1 for the first victory in ten years over the Middies. Lehigh opened with a rushing attack which was continued to the end of the game and left the Navy on the short end of the score.

A superior Swarthmore eleven administered another defeat to the Engineers with the score 3-0. After playing two extra periods, Stevens, an undefeated team, came out on the better end of a 3-2 score. Captain Berg booted both of Lehigh's goals.

The Lehigh booters lost another game to a fast and deceptive team from Haverford 3-2. The score was even until the last period in which the Mainliners booted the winning tally.

Lehigh tried in vain to conquer an undefeated team from Cornell. The Brown and White played a defensive game throughout, losing 2-1. Still hoping for a second victory, the Lehigh team met Syracuse and lost a very closely contested game by the score 3-2.

In the closing game of the season, the Lafayette booters downed the Brown and White for the first time since 1928. The Lehigh team was outplayed by a stronger Maroon contingent, and lost by the score 5-1.

REVIEW OF THE 1935 SWIMMING SEASON

The opening meet of the season was lost to Princeton, 60-11. Jacobi scored Lehigh's only first place when he set a new Lehigh record in the 200-yard breast stroke event. Hutchinson lost second places by very narrow margins in both the 220- and 440-yard dashes.

In a very close meet the Brown and White team defeated the University of Virginia, 42-33. Lehigh took five firsts out of a total of eight events. Stewart broke the Lehigh pool record for the 100-yard free style. He covered the distance in fifty-eight seconds.

The next meet with the University of Delaware was lost, 48-27. The most interesting event was the race between Cary of Delaware and Stewart of Lehigh. Cary swam the 100 yards in a fast time, finishing but two strokes ahead of his opponent.

The Brown and White lost to Swarthmore in an engagement closely contested from beginning to end. The Garnet won the first four events. Lehigh retaliated by taking first and second places in the diving to take the lead, 25-23. The Garnet won the next event and held the lead to the end.

The Rutgers team defeated Lehigh, 48-27. Ellison broke the Lehigh record for the 100-yard dash, winning in the fast time of $57\frac{1}{8}$ seconds. This bettered the former record by $\frac{1}{8}$ second.

Lafayette won the last meet of the season, 54-21. The Leopards took all the first places, and the Brown and White won most of the seconds and thirds. Lehigh was greatly handicapped because six first-string men were unable to compete on account of illness. Captain Ellison scored the most points for Lehigh, taking second place in the 50- and the 100-yard dashes.

In the Eastern Intercollegiates Ellison took third place in the 50-yard dash, and Stewart was fourth in the 100-yard dash finals.

REVIEW OF THE 1934 TENNIS SEASON

Three lettermen and several experienced players made the possibilities of a successful season seem very bright. Those lettermen returning were Captain Gearhart, Rand, and Hollister. With these players as a nucleus, Coach Carothers developed a team that won six out of nine matches. Lehigh won the Middle Three title by defeating Lafayette and Rutgers.

In the opening match of the season, Lehigh far outplayed Muhlenberg to win 8-1. Hollister and Dietz, playing number one doubles, were the only ones to lose. A strong Princeton team met the netmen next and sent them to defeat 9-0.

By winning its second victory, the Brown and White team defeated Rutgers in a close match 5-4. The win gave Lehigh one victory toward the Middle Three tennis title. Hollister, playing number one man, Captain Gearhart, and Dietz won their singles contests; Dietz paired with Hollister and Austin with Hoppock to win their doubles and deciding the match.

Springfield Teachers' College was the next victim of the net team. Coach Carothers' men won with very little difficulty, 7-2. Swarthmore was then defeated by the score 8-1.

The Duke tennis team gave the netmen their second defeat by winning 6-3. Dietz and Austin, numbers two and five singles respectively, and the number three doubles turned in victories over their southern opponents.

The Middle Three title was clinched when the team defeated Lafayette 8-1. The Maroon offered little opposition, for a doubles team alone lost.

The closing matches of the season resulted in a victory over Johns Hopkins 5-4, and a defeat by N.Y.U. 9-0. In the former, Gearhart, Hollister, and Dietz won their singles; Austin and Hoppock took the number two doubles, and Hollister and Gerlach won the number three doubles to decide the match. The tennis team thereby won all but three matches, being beaten by undefeated teams from Princeton, Duke, and N.Y.U.

REVIEW OF THE 1934 TRACK SEASON

The 1934 track season opened with a victory over West Chester State Teachers' College by a score $68\frac{1}{2}$ - $57\frac{1}{2}$. In this meet Hamil Reidy tied the existing 100-yard dash record, 9:4.

At the Penn Relays Bob Jackson placed third in the 400-meter hurdle race. Jackson did exceedingly well, considering that he turned his ankle as he landed after clearing the first hurdle. The 1-mile M.A.S.C.A.A. championship relay was run by Jackson, Kennedy, Healy, and Reidy, and they took second place. In the American Colleges, Class B, 1-mile relay Lehigh also placed second in a very close race.

The team lost to Rutgers by the narrow margin of two points; the score was 64-62. The meet was close throughout, until the Scarlet succeeded in taking the shot-put by two inches. Reidy was high scorer with first places in the 100-, 220-, and the 440-yard dashes for a total of 15 points.

Captain Milton Meissner broke the high jump record in the Middle Atlantic States meet. He crossed the bar at 6 feet, $1\frac{1}{8}$ inches to better the previous record of 6 feet, $\frac{1}{2}$ inch. The team finished third, with Alfred second, and with Rutgers successfully defending the championship.

The concluding meet of the season with Lafayette was won by the score 75-51. Meissner broke his own record in the high jump when he cleared the bar at 6 feet, $2\frac{5}{8}$ inches. Another record also fell when Bob Jackson broke the tape in 24-4'5 seconds to win the low hurdles race.

The Lehigh University Lacrosse Club, organized independent of University support early in 1933, scheduled seven games for the 1934 season. The club closed their season with a record of two victories and five losses. Although this may not be called a successful season, one must take into consideration the fact that the team met some very sturdy opposition. The unusually hard schedule was necessary because strong and experienced eastern teams alone would give guarantees large enough to defray expenses.

Gold lacrosse sticks were presented to the following men: E. L. Wildman, Jr., W. Jacobi, H. L. Hill, H. O. Gruhn, D. H. Hickok, P. E. Short, G. Dornin, J. F. Brownlee, J. M. Charlton, A. W. Keller, W. A. Bailey, F. P. Stultz, M. Faulkner, and F. A. Groff. Dr. Smullin, who offered his services as coach without compensation, was presented with a gold watch as a token of appreciation.

The schedule and scores follow:

Lehigh1	Princeton.....12	Lehigh.....14	Lafayette.....4
Lehigh2	Stevens..... 9	Lehigh 3	Penn State.....7
Lehigh3	Rutgers..... 12	Lehigh 2	Swarthmore...6
	Lehigh 9	Montclair A. C.....7

The Lehigh Epitome

THE EPIHOME is Lehigh's oldest undergraduate publication, having been established by the Class of '78 in their Sophomore year, 1875. It continued to be a Sophomore publication until 1885, when the Juniors assumed its management. Just recently, in 1931, it became a Senior publication.

The original purpose of the EPIHOME was to advertise the University; but in its sixty years of existence its purpose has gradually been altered, and it has assumed its present form, that of a student record-book. Early editions contained jokes, humorous articles, and even humorous dedications. In more recent years, however, the editorial policy has become more serious. With this change in policy has come the distinguished record-book of which the University is justly proud.

Originally the management of the EPIHOME was decided by class election, and in many cases inexperienced journalists impeded the publication of a high class book. Of later, however, only men who have competed for positions during their Sophomore and Junior years hold the editorial offices. In this way the higher positions on the EPIHOME Board are filled by only the men who have had at least two years' experience with the EPIHOME, and who, through this experience, are trained in editing the book.

It is the aim of all organizations to improve the product they turn out. Since its establishment the LEHIGH EPIHOME has gradually improved till it has become a distinguished university record-book. The EPIHOME Board, in producing the EPIHOME, strives to make the publication worthy of Lehigh.

The Lehigh Brown and White

During the forty-first year of its existence the Brown and White has maintained its policy of presenting "All the Lehigh News—First." Since the paper became associated with the journalism department of the University it has taken on a professional aspect, but is still edited entirely by students.

The editorial columns of the Brown and White have been organized with student interests uppermost in the minds of the editors. As a result, various improvements have been effected to strengthen the position of the undergraduate body.

The paper added a weekly rotogravure supplement during the year to give the student body pictorial news of other colleges. Supremacy in the contests of the Inter-collegiate Newspaper Association was again shown as the Brown and White took first place in editorials and second place in general news presentation.

The staff of the paper numbers about a hundred with membership in it open to all students who sign for the required Brown and White courses. The Board includes all men who have worked on the staff more than two semesters.

The Lehigh Review was founded in the spring of 1927 as a typical campus literary magazine. The depression and new management brought about a change two years ago. Instead of a purely literary magazine selling at a high price, the Review became more general in editorial policy, lowered its price to ten cents a copy, and trebled its circulation and advertising revenue.

Continuing under enterprising management the Review has grown into a self-sufficient magazine, each of the quarterly issues containing from thirty-two to forty pages. The editors have continually attempted to give its readers an interesting and varied magazine and, at the same time, to retain the high literary standard set up by its founders.

The Review furnishes an outlet for many types of writing. A portion of each issue is devoted to stories, essays, and poems. Recent issues have been profusely illustrated. Each of the past year's issues has contained the story and photographs of some famous university. Each issue also carries a full page portrait photograph and a biography of some member of the administration or faculty.

Other biographies, articles, and editorials complete the issues. Among the results of the Review's editorial policy was the reform in the method of electing class officers.

At the present time the policy of the Lehigh Review is that of a liberal campus magazine, attempting to give both readers and advertisers a worthwhile publication.

Tau Beta Pi

Exactly fifty years ago there was founded at Lehigh University an honorary engineering society which was to play a large part in the development and refinement of the engineering profession. This society was named Tau Beta Pi, and soon came to be known as the "engineer's Phi Beta Kappa."

Professor Edwin S. Williams, Jr., conceived the idea of such a society in the early 1880's. Finally in May, 1885, after all rituals and the constitution had been drawn up, Professor Williams shared his idea with Irving Andrews Heikes, the valedictorian for 1885. Early in June, Heikes was initiated; and Tau Beta Pi thus had a start in the undergraduate world.

While Tau Beta Pi has been called the "engineer's Phi Beta Kappa," it is quite different in regards to purpose and eligibility requirements. Professor Williams felt that high scholastic standing should be recognized, but he also felt that character should play an important part in the eligibility code. Taking all in all, candidates for membership must have high ratings in scholarship, steadiness, honesty, and dependability.

Thus Tau Beta Pi recognizes the criterions for success in the business world and prepares the man for later life. It gives the engineer a code of ethics which undoubtedly has and shall continue to influence the engineering profession along the lines of fairness and cooperation.

Tau Beta Pi now has sixty-nine active chapters and over 23,000 members. Because of its size Tau Beta Pi has been able to establish a number of fellowships which will aid both the student and the engineering profession as a whole in the acquisition of scientific knowledge.

The Lehigh International Relations Club is one of a large group of clubs in Middle Atlantic Colleges. Its purpose is to increase interest in international affairs. These clubs are fortunate in having affiliations with the Carnegie Peace Foundation which supplies literature upon international topics, and sponsors many intercollegiate activities in which the Lehigh club has always taken an active part.

In November of 1934 a delegation was sent to the Peace Conference at Penn State. This spring the club intends to represent China at the League Assembly at New York University.

Lehigh's honorary philosophical society was founded in the fall of 1923 by seven students. Its original name was "The Robert W. Blake Society for the study of Philosophy, Psychology, and Education."

The original constitution provided for fifteen members, which quota has since been enlarged to twenty. The Society meets at least once every month to listen to an informal lecture by a visiting speaker, after which there is a discussion. The members also make an annual pilgrimage to some university and each year the Blake Society sponsors a University lecture.

The Robert W. Hall Pre-Medical Society was founded in 1922 by Dr. Hall. In 1927 the name of the Society which had been the Lehigh Pre-Medical Society was changed to the Robert W. Hall Pre-Medical Society. The Society was formed to encourage among its members an interest in the medical profession, to inform its members of all matters pertaining to the medical profession, and to bring about an "esprit de corps" among the pre-medical students of the University. Today the Society is ranked as one of the leading and most active societies on the campus.

Mustard and Cheese Club

DRAMATIC ASSOCIATION

Fifty years ago a group of students frequently met in the back parlor of Charlie Rennig's to satisfy their thirst with beer and their hunger with Charlie's cheese sandwiches spread with mustard. It was in this group that the idea of a Lehigh dramatic association developed into a reality under the direction of Richard Harding Davis, then an undergraduate at the University.

Since its organization in 1885, the Mustard and Cheese Club has staged practically every type of dramatic production including many musical comedies written entirely by members of the undergraduate body. The depression forced the club to discontinue such elaborate performances.

The past two years the club has started as if anew under the direction of Mr. Albert Rights. Last year, to further assist the purpose of the club, was created the Dramatic Workshop. Its purpose is to train men, as part of their regular course, in the fine points of directing and writing plays. It is the hope of the club that in the near future its regular performances will be from the work submitted in this course. Last spring the club and the workshop cooperated to produce "Grub Steaks," an original play by Robert Farnham, Jr., and Edwin S. Williams, Jr., members of the club. "The Front Page," "Whistling in the Dark," and "Journey's End" were among the hit productions of the past two years.

The Combined Musical Clubs is composed of the Glee Club, Dance Orchestra, and Symphonic Ensemble. Each year the Glee Club gives concerts throughout eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and New York. These concerts are usually followed by dances for which the Dance Orchestra plays. In addition, one concert and dance is given each semester in Drown Hall. The Symphonic Ensemble made its first appearance this spring. It is expected that within the next few years this group will become as popular around the campus as the Glee Club and Dance Orchestra.

The Lehigh University Band, one of the largest and best college bands of the east, was founded by three students in 1908.

The band progressed slowly after its founding until 1924, when Mr. Shields, its present director, took the band in his hands. Soon afterwards, in 1926, the Bethlehem Steel Company Band was disorganized, and all their instruments were given to the Lehigh Band. Thus affording another big movement forward for the band. About five years ago, the band uniform was changed from a brown sweater with white duck trousers to a fully equipped uniform, consisting of a brown coat, cap, and white flannel trousers.

Under Mr. Shields direction the band has steadily increased in size and popularity, until today, it consists of well over one hundred members. Ninety-six of which form the marching band.

The University Band plays at all the home football games, and at most of the games played away from school. Everywhere they have been received with much enthusiasm, because of their excellent drilling, fine showmanship, and ability to form letters. It is hoped that within the near future the band will be greatly enlarged, and that additional uniforms and new capes will be bought.

Today, the Lehigh University Band, has an enviable position among Eastern college bands, with its excellent marching ability, fine uniforms, large instrumentation, and good music.
